PRESIDENT WILSON FLAYS CONGRESS

ILLINOIS WINNER OF CONFERENCE MEET

SENSATIONAL ATTACK ON TITTEMORE

J. Weller Long at Equity Conference Here Tells of List of Judgments

ON FILE AT OSHKOSH

One is for Domestic Services Due Hired Girl; Officers Elected Here

Sensational charges against J. N. Tittemore, president of the Wisconsin Union, Society of Equity, were made yesterday at the conference of Equity men held here to discuss ways and means to change affairs in the organization. Those taking part in the conference are opposed to Tittemore domination of the society.

It was charged that to continue to permit Mr. Tittemore to act as farmers' candidate for governor or to allow without protest his administration of the organization's affairs, would only work irreparable injury to the farmers of Wisconsin.

The charges were made by J. Weller Long, former secretary of the National Society of Equity.

"We have this man," said Mr. Long referring to Mr. Tittemore, "posing as the leader of the farmers in this state in both a political and business way having the nerve to announce his candidacy for governor when there is a judgment against him at the present time in the county court of Winnebago county for over $250 for domestic services due to a hired girl.

"Here is a man who is a candidate for governor who has so little regard for his own personal obligations that he has repeatedly given checks that have been returned from the bank marked 'no funds'."

Mr. Long then proceeded to read the list of judgments that are on file in the courts of Winnebago county. He read certified statements from the clerk of the courts of Winnebago county showing the judgments on file.

Mr. Long also displayed photographs of checks which had been given by Mr. Tittemore which were returned by the bank. Two of these photographs are reproduced on this page today.

Mr. Long read a copy of an affidavit made by Minnie Rasmussen, who obtained a judgment against Tittemore which was docketed in the county court of Winnebago county on June 24, 1918 for $205.37 and costs amounting to $53.62. The affidavit in part follows:

"That the plaintiff rendered and performed domestic work, labor and services for the defendant (J. N. Tittemore) at his instance and request, at his farm residence in Winnebago county from the 20th day of March, 1916, to on or about the 3rd day of July, 1917, for which the defendant agreed to pay the plaintiff what the same were reasonably worth; that the same were reasonably worth the sum of $5 per week for the period of such work was 67 weeks; that the defendant has paid nothing on account of such services except the sum of $55 although the plaintiff has frequently demanded payment."

A certified copy of a letter was read by Mr. Long from Frank W. Schlueter, clerk of the courts of Winnebago county, showing judgments aggregating over $9,000 on file in Winnebago county. These judgments were the Booksellers' Protective and Collection association, the Pacific Hotel Co., the Waldorf-Astor Hotel Co., the Burrows Bros. Co., the Wetzel Bros.'s Printing Co., George Barrie & Sons, and the Mitchell Street bank, Milwaukee.

According to the clerk of courts of Winnebago county the judgment of the Pacific Hotel Co. was satisfied within the last ten days.

Mr. Long gave a long analysis of the state of affairs in the National Society of Equity and stated that Tittemore and his followers had made the charges against Long and by thus throwing dust to detract attention from themselves. Mr. Long defied the Tittemore followers to start either a suit or an investigation over the affairs of the national organization.

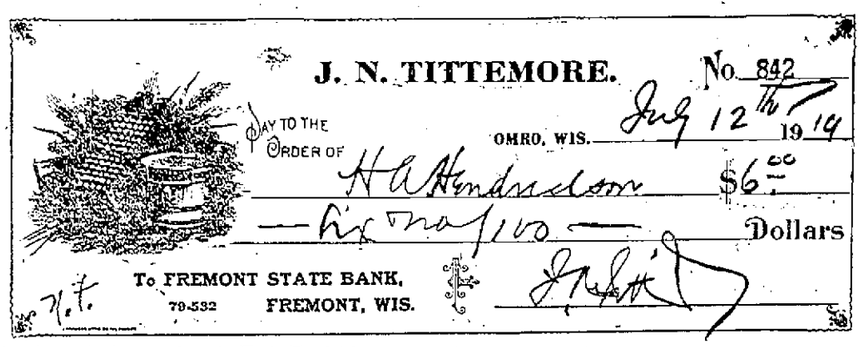

Despite the allegation of J. N. Tittemore that the union was more than $40,000 in debt as a result of my management of funds, I have showed today that it was not in debt one penny when I left it," said Mr. Long last night.

The conference yesterday voted unanimously to form a state chapter of the United Farmers of America.

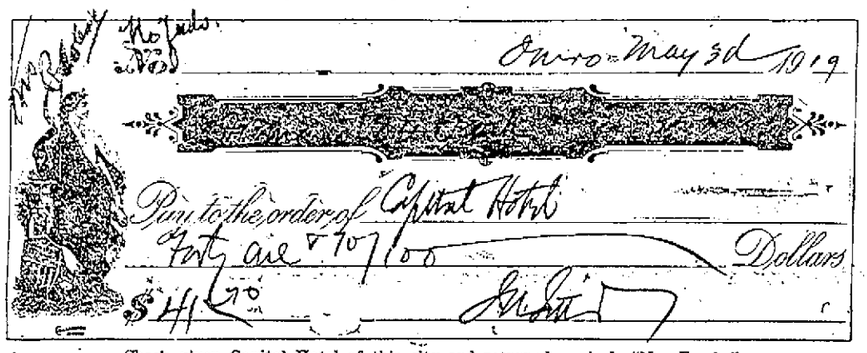

George F. Comings of Eau Claire was elected president of the new state organization; C. B. Ballard of Appleton, vice president; and Charles Holz of Campbellsport, Frank Riley of Elroy, and J. C. Hanson of Cambridge, members of the board of directors. The board was authorized to outline its policy and instructed to draw up a program.

Delegates to the national convention of the United Farmers of America to be held at Chicago June 11-12, are C. B. Ballard, Oscar Redteg of Watertown, and Henry Thiel of Appleton.

OSHKOSH—A. C. McHenry, mayor of the city of Oshkosh under commission government, has placed in circulation nomination papers and makes the formal announcement that he will enter the field as a candidate for the nomination for U. S. senator on the republican ticket.

The work of securing the required number of signatures of electors is in progress. Mr. McHenry stated that he intended to make the run on a platform that will emphasize Americanism and that he will stand for personal liberty. He has served two of a six year term as mayor.

URGES MOTHERS TO STUDY FILM

Dr. O'Shea Addresses Congress at Session Here Today

"The movies constitute the greatest factor effecting the life of the boys and girls in our secondary schools," said Dr. M. V. O'Shea, who presided at the morning session of the National Mothers' congress, at the assembly chamber today. He urged the Mothers' Congress to make a study of the influence of the dance, movies, pool rooms, and tobacco, on the pupils in the secondary schools, and said that the University of Wisconsin is making a survey of the subject and will publish its conclusions when completed.

Other agencies are making studies of these subjects. Dr. O'Shea is the chairman of the department of education of the congress.

He recommended the congress to make a survey of the conditions of living of the teachers in country town and city schools. He recommended a survey of school buildings to determine their effect on childrens' health, sanitary conditions, light, and ventilation should be looked into.

Mrs. O. T. Bright of Chicago, chairman of the Parent-Teachers' associations department, reported.

Mrs. Frederick Scheff reported for the Thrift department. In the discussion following her report, Mrs. C. Arthur Varney of North Yakima, Wash., said the men should co-operate with the women in the work, and in view of the talk about extravagance in woman's dress, she said recently she saw a display of silk shirts in a men's wear store window, with the sign "$24.75 each. Men Take Your Choice." She urged men to cut out luxurious habits and use less tobacco and cigars.

Other chairmen of departments making reports this morning were Mrs. S. H. Whitten, Holyoke, Mass., on child hygiene, and Mrs. Edward M. Barney, of Medford, Mass., on parents' associations in churches.

The first thing on the program for Monday morning is the election of officers. A nominating committee appointed last year will report. Mrs. Orville T. Bright of Chicago is chairman and the other members are Mrs. Milton P. Higgins of Massachusetts, Mrs. W. L. Saltford of New York, Mrs. C. S. Thompson of California, and Mrs. Fred Dick of Colorado.

Tellers were announced this morning: Mrs. S. H. Ryder of New York and Mrs. W. R. Ramsey of Colorado.

CHICAGO—Charges of Senator Moses of New Hampshire that the republican national committee has used "steam-roller" methods in deciding contests, were denied by several committeemen at today's committee sessions.

H. B. McCoy, national committeeman from the Philippines, brought up the Moses charges and, declaring he was a Wood supporter, denounced Senator Moses' statement as "absolutely unwarranted."

National Committeeman Highland of West Virginia, who also said he is for Wood, made similar statements.

CHICAGO — Disagreement between Gen. Wood's managers over whether the Republican national committee has been "steam rolling" his delegates has furnished the incident which was needed to wind up the Republican convention preliminaries with a three ring finish.

RAIL STRIKE MAY TIE UP N. W. ROAD

Strike Ballots Sent Out to 5,800 Employes Saturday

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO—Distribution of strike ballots to the 5,800 railway clerks, freight handlers, express and station employes on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad by E. H. Fitzgerald, acting president of the brotherhood, was authorized by a vote of the men, made public today.

It was said the decision was taken against the advice of General Chairman C. A. Worrell and Assistant General Chairman C. P. Herrman of that division.

The resolution adopted would put the strike into effect June 15 if authorized, unless the demands are granted.

"We are not asking for higher wages," said Worrell. "We are waiting for the decision of the railroad labor board on wages. But we do ask the officials of the road to enter into an agreement such as other roads have granted in which better working conditions are assured and interpretations of the rules are defined."

"We have not rejected the employes' demands," said Marvin Hughitt, vice president of the Northwestern, "nor have we given any final answer to them. The door is still open for negotiation."

HOSPITAL GRADS TO HEAR DOCTOR H. GIDEON WELLS

Dr. H. Gideon Wells of Chicago will give an illustrated lecture on "Some Observations on Pestilence and Famine in Roumania and the Balkans during the War," at the University of Wisconsin Medical Society meeting June 8 at 8 o'clock in Madison high school auditorium.

Dr. Wells spent much of the war period in studying and fighting typhus and other epidemics on the ground. His experiences were tremendously interesting, and he is a particularly entertaining speaker as well as an unusually keen pathologist and epidemiologist. His lecture will be as interesting to the public as it will be to the medical profession. All are invited to be present.

The occasion of Dr. Wells address will be the graduation exercises of the Nurses' Training School, Madison General Hospital.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON — The sixty sixth congress ended its second session today, adjourning sine die at four p. m. Unless a grave emergency arises, which makes it necessary for a special session, it will not meet again until December 6.

The bill to create a national budget system failed of action today in the senate, and automatically died when congress adjourned at four p. m.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON — President Wilson, in a telegram today to officials of the railroad brotherhoods, criticised congress for failing to take action with regard to the high cost of living, the conclusion of peace and important domestic legislation.

The telegram was in reply to a message asking the president to prevent the adjournment of congress today. The executive said that in the light of the record of the present congress, "I have no reason whatever to hope that its continuance in session would result in constructive measures for the relief of the economic conditions to which you call attention."

It must be evident to all," the president said, "that the dominating motive which has actuated this congress is political expediency rather than lofty purpose to serve the public welfare."

The president declared he had accepted some of the legislation enacted by this congress because he despaired of anything better."

In nine months this congress has taken no important remedial action with respect to the problem of the cost of living on the lines indicated in my address or on any other line. Not only has the present congress failed to deal directly with the cost

WOMAN HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Mrs. Fred Mix Injured as Street Car Strikes Automobile

Mrs. Fred Mix, 222 N. Pinckney St., was injured about 2 o'clock this afternoon, when a five passenger Mitchell car in which she and her husband were driving was struck by a Johnson street car, No. 47, at the crossing of State and W. Gorham streets. Mrs. Mix was taken to St. Mary's hospital. The car license number is 230,000.

According to Charles Habberman, an eye witness, the car was being driven down W. Goham st., going west. The street car was going up State street toward the square and Mr. Mix evidently tried to cross before the car. The street car struck the automobile, pushing it ahead with the fender, carrying it about 100 feet down State st.

Mrs. Mix, who was sitting on the right side of the car, sustained injuries about the right side of the neck and face. Mr. Mix was uninjured.

The front right wheel of the automobile was pretty well broken, being driven into the side of the hood, the radiator hood was smashed, the front right axle broken, the top of the car slightly damaged, a little paint rubbed off the side and the mud guards broken.

Mrs. Mix was cut by glass from the broken windows of the street car. There were several little spots of blood about the running board.

of living, but it has failed even to give serious consideration to the urgent appeal to revise the tax laws which in their present form are indirectly responsible in part for the high cost of living. The protracted delay in dealing with the problem of the railroads, problem of the government owned merchant marine and other similar urgent matters has resulted in unnecessary burdens upon the public treasury, and ultimately in legislation so unsatisfactory that I could accept it, if at all, only because I despaired of anything better. The present congress has not only prevented the conclusion of peace in Europe, but has failed to present any constructive plan for dealing with the deplorable conditions there, the continuance of which can only reflect upon us."

The letter to the president from the brotherhood chiefs said:

"As the responsible heads of railroad labor organizations, representing more than two million workers, we protest most earnestly and most emphatically against the proposed adjournment of congress next Saturday in accordance with the plan reported in the public press. We call attention to the fact that despite the revelations as to the profiteering scandal, congress has done nothing to check the evil, or to punish the evil-doers. That the cost of living continues to advance without a single remedial measure having been passed and that there has not been even serious consideration of constructive legislation dealing with the serious problem of industrial unrest.

"In the circumstances, it appears to us incredible that the responsible leaders of the government at Washington can assent to this seeming agreement of continuation of a "do-nothing policy which means that the grave problems of the people are to be made the playthings of politics and politicians for the next five months. It invites political chaos and business disaster. Congress should remain in session."

JURY VERDICT HOLDS WEAVER

Reckless Driving Charged; To Be Arraigned in Few Days

Upon recommendation of the coroner's jury, which heard the testimony Friday, Robert Weaver, driver of the car through which Miss Amanda Hansen met her death in the Memorial day accident at N. Broom and W. Johnson sts., was held on a charge of reckless driving.

The verdict of the jury stated that "the immediate cause of death was a fracture of the skull, caused by being hurled by the force of the collision from the auto in which she was riding; that the said machine in which she was riding was being driven at reckless speed by Robert Weaver of Madison, Wis.

The jury added a request that Judge Hoppmann "appoint a committee of representative citizens to work out a plan whereby all responsible automobile drivers shall pledge themselves to report all cases of reckless driving to the authorities so that further accidents of this nature may be averted."

Civil proceedings against one of both of the families may be instituted, according to W. Stanley Smith, city attorney of Ashland, who represented the Hansen family at the inquest.

Weaver himself took the stand. After giving his home as 707 W. Johnson st., his occupation, a street car conductor, he explained that he had come up Johnson st. toward town at his usual rate of speed—about 15 miles an hour—with the windshield open and the four girls in the car. He admitted glancing over his shoulder at a remark made by Polly Voorhees some time before the accident but denied that he was chatting as he approached Broom.

He described graphically the collision. His companion in the front seat, Elizabeth Voorhees, gave an account that tallied with his.

The driver of the other car, T. J. Hilgers, testified that the speed of the Weaver machine was so great he had no opportunity to turn between the time he first saw it and the time the two automobiles struck.

SESSION QUITS AFTER RUMPUS

Adjourns Without Action On Philipp Tax Bill Veto

The special session of the Wisconsin legislature adjourned sine die Friday afternoon at 3:45, without taking any action upon Gov. Philipp's veto to the Severson surtax bill or on his veto to the Pullen bill which sought to increase the amount of aid to county training schools from $3,000 a year to $6,000 a year. All other bills passed by the legislature were signed by the governor.

It was only after an effort that the senate was able to adjourn. Sen. Geo. Staudenmayer of Portage wanted to have the entire legislature recalled to pass upon the veto of the governor. It was finally arranged that the senate should take no action on governor's veto.

Two bills were passed at this session authorizing increases in salaries and other operating expenses at university and normal schools. There is probably sufficient funds in the treasury to take care of this situation up to Jan. 1st and for that reason the legislature adjourned without taking action on the governor's veto to the Severson bill which sought to raise this money by an income tax. The issues presented in the Severson bill will, however, become a campaign issue in many of legislative districts in the state and may play some part in the gubernatorial campaign. It is doubtful if the senate could have passed the Severson bill over the veto of the governor had it returned. When the measure was under discussion 13 senators voted in favor of governor's plan and 14 voted in favor of the Severson plan. The vote in the assembly was much larger in proportion in favor of the Severson plan.

The striking accomplishment of special session has been the creation of a state hospital at Madison for the care of crippled and deformed humanity and poor people from all sections of the state. Plans for starting this institution will be made at once. It now seems probable that no further extra session of the legislature will be necessary, because the general session of the legislature is to be convened here next January.

have seated Lowden delegates over Wood contestants as a "steam roller" proceedure, Gen. Wood himself has followed it up with a statement expressing confidence in the fairness of Chairman Hays and disclaiming any belief that the committeemen are permitting personal preferences to enter into the decisions.

Steam roller talk hasn't appeared in the preliminaries since the contest of 1912 and it adds to the noise and confusion in which the uninstructed delegate, so to speak, is having some difficulty in locating the bandwagon.

Several elements contribute to the support of predictions that it is going to be a regular old-time convention. Four years ago on preconvention Saturday, everything looked pretty tame. Charles Evan Hughes was as good as nominated, and the atmosphere was placid. Today there are a dozen little whirling eddies each loaded with possibilities of developing into cyclonic proportions.

Many steadying influences which guided the preliminaries of four years ago are absent now and a good many new elements which make for confusion are present. The majority of the delegates are uninstructed, and although, a majority of them are anxious to board some bandwagon there does not appear to be any. There are several vehicles ready to be rolled out but the horsepower doesn't seem to be mobilized as yet and everybody seems to look to the possibilities that some of the horses may be dark. Moreover the delegates who will have to contribute the votes to nominate the candidate seem to be having little real information so far as to the starting point of the procession although they are being invited in a half dozen different directions.

Then there is the absence of the steadying influence of the old time leaders. The bosses who speak with authority seem to be absent and although the incoming delegates are willing to be led they don't find any considerable party being personally conducted in any one direction. About the only thing that everybody seems to be agreed upon is that no candidate is going to be nominated on the first ballot and it seems that all the managers are figuring on at least three ballots to find out where they stand. The prediction of many seasoned politicians is that the convention will have its opening hurrah, the complimentary votes for the favorite sons, the ballots to fulfill the instructions and pledges, and then the real business will begin.

If the program being talked of is carried out, the leaders of the delegations from the larger states will have a conference and decide whether they will pool their votes and, returning to the convention next morning, cast them for the man about whom they have hopes of rallying enough support. Whether he velop that some one of the candidates now in the field no one assumes to say, because only the preliminary balloting can determine it. But with that as a starting point, the seasoned politicians are quite sure there will be little delay in getting to an agreement. It may develoy that some one of the candidates now in the field, besides having good prospects for his own nomination, will also hold a veto power which will compel the compromise managers to accept a man of whom he approves. Senator Johnson is always mentioned when this probability is being discussed.

There is still another element which adds to the uncertainty. It is a repeatedly expressed feeling among state governors chairman of state delegations and others that members of congress and federal officials have too much to say in convention plans and decisions. How far this element will have to be recognized remains to be seen.

Chairman Hays is making no statement on the steam roller charges but he points out to inquirers that this year the committee made it the practice in its open sessions to spread upon its minutes the legal reasons for its decision in each case and that this record will be available if the contests are to be discussed in the credentials committee.

These last three days of the preliminary period are like harvest days on the farm. Everything needs to be done and done at once if the crop is to be saved and all hands are at it from sun-up. If a politician of any account on the ground here gets five hours of sleep out of the 24 he is accounted a lazy man. When he isn't fighting off friends looking for convention tickets he is hunting delegates for his favorite candidate. If he has any real ideas of what is going to happen he is keeping them strictly to himself, and the probabilities are that if he disclosed them he would be accounted more an enthusiast than a prophet.

For nearly a week now things have been shaping up to a point where only a push is required to start them off. The national committee in its daily sessions was really the only part of the political machinery doing any work. All the other politicians on the scene are holding conventions in the hotel lobbies and making nominating speeches to any crowd that was willing to listen. With the steady arrival of men who bear the responsibility of leadership something more than that gossip will begin to develop from now on.

HEALTH PLAN FOR BADGERS

Mrs. Edith Hoyt Outlines Program for Welfare Work in Wisconsin

"The work for the welfare of children in our state will naturally continue in the directions already begun and in each community will be determined by local conditions. There are four large and general problems that affect the welfare of children and each club must select and study those phases of child welfare which are most urgent in its own community. These four problems are health, recreation, education and delinquency," declared Mrs. Edith E. Hoyt in an address today before the National Congress of Mothers. Mrs. Hoyt is connected with the extension department of the state university.

"Under health, three forms of work are greatly needed. These are to provide proper food for undernourished children; to hold health conferences, and establish clinics; to bring about medical inspection, the school nurse, and the county nurse, where these do not exist at present.

"The problem of recreation should be studied with reference, first to the opportunity for supervised play afforded by the schools, and the conditions of play grounds; second, the situation with reference to pool and billiard rooms and moving picture theatres.

"Some of the urgent problems of education at the present time are the junior high school; vocational guidance; the 'stay in school' campaign of the children's bureau; the function of the parent-teacher association.

"Juvenile delinquency is closely related to health, recreation and education. It is often the result of economic conditions also; poor housing, low wages, overcrowding in slum sections of cities, the mother being forced to go out to work, these are large factors in producing delinquent children.

"The juvenile court, the probation system, compulsory school attendance, the mother's pension and the child labor laws, are matters upon which club women should not be only intelligent but in which they may cooperate with those in authority to reduce the causes of delinquency, and to restore to self-respect and usefulness those who have gone wrong."

1000 WISCONSIN BUYERS OF Wisconsin Gas & Electric "Safe Home Seven Per Cents"

One thousand Wisconsin investors—more than 300 of them women—have bought Wisconsin Gas & Electric Company "Safe Home 7 Per Cents" in 70 business days. More than 600 of the 1,000 live in Milwaukee. Milwaukee and its suburban cities now have over 4,500 investors in Wisconsin Gas & Electric Company and The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light Company. The two companies have over 8,000 investors in Wisconsin—including several hundred of their 4,700 employes.

While they last — and they are going out steadily—you can buy Wisconsin Gas & Electric 5-year, 7 per cent Gold Notes in $50, $100, $500 and $1,000 sizes, and 7 per cent preferred stock in $100 shares, at the Company's offices in Milwaukee, Racine, Kenosha, Watertown, Whitewater, Burlington, South Milwaukee and Cudahy. The Notes come due and will be paid off in cash March 1, 1925. Their interest is payable March 1 and September 1. Preferred stock dividends are payable April 15, July 15, October 15 and January 15. This stock—preferred both as to dividends and assets—has first claim on the Company's dividend earnings up to 7 per cent each year, and shares equally with the common stock all dividends paid over 10 per cent in any year. Its safe 7 per cent income, with its chance to earn one or two per cent more in good years, make it an especially desirable permanent income investment. Holders of the 5-year Notes can, if they wish, exchange them at par for shares of the participating preferred stock, on any interest date to September 1, 1924.

Wisconsin Gas & Electric Company and The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light Company are closely associated, under common ownership and management. The region they serve, embracing the Milwaukee metropolitan district and eleven counties surrounding the Milwaukee district on the north, west and south, is the richest, most populous and fastest-growing portion of Wisconsin. They have been able to finance most of their growth during the past four years, running into millions of dollars, by selling their 7 per cent notes and preferred stocks to Wisconsin investors. They have been given this magnificent home indorsement, during a period when other American utility companies found it difficult and often impossible to get new capital, because from their beginning—T. M. E. R. & L. Co. in 1896 and Wisconsin Gas & Electric in 1912—THESE COMPANIES HAVE KEPT FAITH WITH THEIR INVESTORS. Because they are legitimately capitalized and honestly managed, they have been able to meet every obligation on the due date, earn regular dividends and pay liberal wages under fair working conditions, while charging lower rates and fares than similar utilities in most other states.

Mail orders for Wisconsin Gas & Electric Company notes and preferred stock should be addressed to, and remittanes made payable to, WISCONSIN GAS & ELECTRIC COMPANY, Securities Department, Public Service Building, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Bank draft, certified check, postoffice or express money order should be sent with mail orders. Prompt delivery of notes or shares will be made by registered mail.

BUDGET BILL IS REPASSED

House Amends Measure and Overrides Veto of President

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON — After it had been amended to meet President Wilson's objections, the bill to establish a national budget system July 1, was repassed today by the house and sent to the senate. The president vetoed the bill last night because exclusive authority was given congress to remove the comptroller-general and assistant comptroller-general, whose appointment by the president is provided in the measure

The house failed to pass the measure over the veto and sent it to a committee.

The measure was reported today with an amendment giving the supreme court authority to appoint and remove these officials.

This met with a storm of protest from the democratic side and republican leaders agreed to a change placing the control over the two offices with the president who would appoint them "with the advice and consent of the senate."

"GUM DROPS," A COMEDY CONFECTION CHANGES ORPH INTO CANDY KITCHEN

Sketch Will be Seen in New Bill; Vivid Attractions Feature Week's Offerings at Other Theatres

Little Caruso & Co., an organization of five people, will be one of the leading attractions at the Orpheum the first half of the week, commencing tomorrow afternoon. They will offer "A Night in Venice," rated one of the best acts of its kind. Thomas F. Smith, a clever light comedian, and Mary Kelly, popular in the profession, are to present Gum Drops," a comedy confection. Jack Lait, famous writer, has contributed a new playlet, "Oh What a Day," or an incident of every day life. This will be presented at the Orpheus. Johnny Keane, the Boy from Ireland, will sing and tell stories; Samsted and Madison are to offer physical culture demonstrations. Kinograms will be shown. Booked for the last half of the week are the Alexander Kids, Helene "Smiles" Davis, Types Past and Present, Al Wohlman, "The Student"; Roy and Arthur, a Chinese Restaurant," and Kalaluhi's Musical Hawaiians.

At the Fuller—"Shore Acres," James A. Herne's popular stage success made into picture form and featuring Alice Lake, will be the picture offering at the Fuller for the last times today. This photo-play which has made a strong appeal to lovers of the screen's best offerings and crowded houses have been the rule at all performances. It is a picture that will interest and entertain the young as well as the old. Calendar for next week: Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday—Nazimova in 'Stronger Than Death"; week of Sunday, June 13, Priscilla Dean in "The Virgin of Stamboul."

At the Majestic—When it comes to pleasing the critical audiences that patronize the pictures nowadays, William S. Hart must be given the credit for putting over the goods that sure do please them. He again comes in one of his best that he has produced. The great out doors of the west are thrown open to you, with its wonderful plains, scenery and hard-riding cowboys that give you a thrill every inch of the film. This picture will only be sown Sunday at the Majestic. Added attraction, "The Lion Man," is full of action.

At the Palace—When Charlie Chaplin plays the villain, Mabel Normand the vamp, and Marie Dressler the "wronged girl," with Chester Conklin and Mark Swain doing their bit, too, all directed by the master of comedy directors, Mack Sennett, there is an irresistible combination of players and situations that will make the whole world laugh. And "Tillie's Punctured Romance," which is coming to the Palace theater Sunday and Monday, contains all this, and a whole lot more.

Through six side-splitting reels, Chaplin alternates between the roles of the wise city guy, the vamped mere male, and the henpecked spouse.

At the New Strand—"The Hawk" is the mysterious master criminal in Maurice Tourneur's screen version of "My Lady's Garter," will be shown at the Strand theater for the last times today. A special added attraction, Harold Lloyd in "From Hand to Mouth," will also be shown. Calender for next week: June 6, 7, 8, Mabel Normand in "Pinto," Forbidden River, scenic, Bray Pictograph. June 9, 10, 11, 12, Marguerite Clark in "Easy to Get," Paramount Magazine, Literary Digest's "Topics of the Day."

THREE JACKIES END EVENTFUL RIDE IN PIE-KITCHEN OF COUNTY JAIL

Doughty Sailors Charged With Stealing Automobile Brought Back From Detroit by Madison Detective

Just after the wee, small hours of the night there drove into Madison a seven passenger Buick, belonging to the Hook Bros. Piano Co., and containing Capt. Davenport, Detective Jesse Smith of the police force, and four tall jackies, very cold and very dirty, after a ride of two nights and a day from Detroit, where the Hook car, which disappeared on May 28, was located last Tuesday. The car is valued at $1,700.

The boys are: Arthur Folmsbee of Syracuse, N. Y.; Ernest Moran of Stamford, Conn., Earl Maslen of Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Fred Talbot of Chicago, all stationed at Great Lakes training station. All the boys admitted the theft of the car, but only Moran pleaded guilty to driving it without the permission of the owner, which constituted a separate charge. The lads were turned over to Sheriff Krug until further investigation into their case can be made.

A dejected looking quartet they were, as they appeared before the judge. An hour later, however, after real tub baths in the cool, clean jail, the first in several days, their youthful spirits revived.

"Never been in such a place before," ruefully remarked Folmsbee, a tall, good-looking lad of 18. "The thing that worries me most is that I'll probably get a dishonorable discharge for this."

Moran, who gives his home as Stamford, Conn., and claims that he is married, says he is 20 years old. "I hope this story doesn't get east to my parents," he said. "They would feel awful about it."

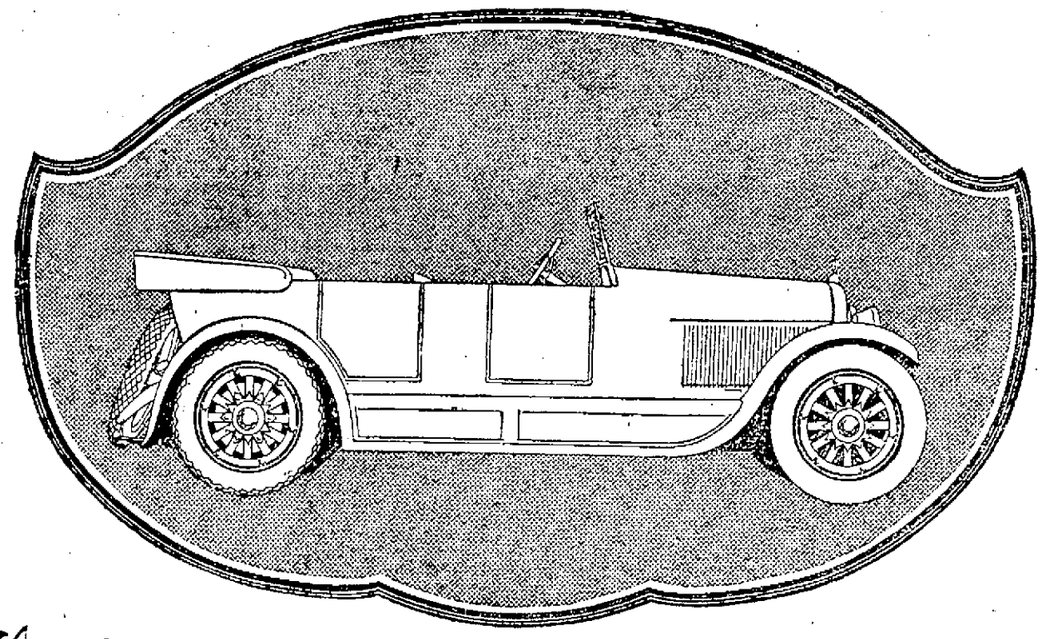

Earl Maslen, a tall, slender youth, who declares he is 18, says he comes from Niagara Falls, that he has no parents except a stepmother, while Fred Talbot, aged 19, comes from Chicago. Moran and Folmsbee were "buddies" in France, and have been together most of the three years. They met their two companions at Great Lakes.

"You see," explained Folmsbee in the engaging manner of a naughty boy, "we were going to return the car. We were off on furlough, and thought we'd go for a little joy ride. When we got to Detroit, we intended to drive the machine back again, but we didn't get a chance." Here he grinned broadly.

"Look after the pies," called Mrs. Julius Krug, wife of the sheriff, who stood near by, listening to the tale. At the magic word, the boys' eyes brightened, and they clasped their stomachs. "Pies!" they echoed. "Do we get pies, mother?" But Mrs. Krug wouldn't tell them.

Relating stories of their homes, two of the boys produced pictures of the girls they had left behind, and accused the other lads of also possessing pictures.

The JORDAN Silhouette

MEN and women who prefer to drive their own cars are most keenly appreciative of a light-weight, quick-about, perfectly balanced, rattle-proof, always dependable car, which looks the aristocrat of the road.

In appearance, the Jordan maintains its place with those whose choice is ever that of the finely discriminating—an ease and grace of line entirely pleasing to the most exacting taste.

Its essential characteristic is quality — quality sustained, unstinted.

This is the Jordan ideal—easily recognized wherever finest motor cars are seen.

The Jordan is the final result of most studious attention to all that is best in American and foreign built cars. It weighs but 2800 pounds. It holds the road, speeding forward without a tremor, bouncing and swaying never.

PAINTERS DEMAND 90 CENTS AN HOUR

Painters left their work Saturday morning pending settlement of their demand for 90 cents an hour. When their contract expired May 1 they were receiving 75 cents an hour, which was later increased to 80 cents an hour. After the carpenters' successful strike they renewed their demands, setting Friday as the limit for an answer from the employers. The Madison union is said to be 100 per cent organized, numbering 150 painters. All responded to the strike call.

TWO GRADUATE AT LAKEWOOD

The Lakewood school held its closing exercises Friday afternoon in the auditorium of the school with many parents of pupils of the school in attendance. There were two graduates this year, Miss Lillian Anderson and Mr. Edwin Stephen.

At the close of the exercises the teacher of the graduating class, Miss Mary Comings, visited the state historical museum with her pupils, after which she entertained them with a picnic on the university campus.

FIELD SPORTS AND DANCING GIVEN TODAY

Women Present Program at Camp Randall and in Outdoor Theater

Field day to be held this afternoon and evening at Camp Randall and in the outdoor theater under the management of W. A. A. with Hazel Wright in charge, will mark the climax of women's athletics for the year by offering contests and exhibitions in six sports: track, baseball, tennis, quoits, archery, and dancing.

The dancing, under the direction of Miss Margaret H'Doubler, will be arranged in a program of eight numbers covering a wide range of appeals. Perhaps one of the most interesting groups is a series of dances included in number seven under the title "Dance Divertisement."

This dance consists of three main divisions. The first one, "Frieze" is divided into several parts, including a solo dance by Agnes Samuels, well-known for her work in dancing and dramatic work. "Vagabond," the second part of the group is a solo by Julia Hanks, and "Minuet" by Aline Smith, finishes the number.

Dancers who have been favorites and who are appearing again this year are Adelin Briggs, Gladys Hawthorne, Dorothy Bridge, Eleanor Riley, Frances Ellen Tucker, Bertha Ochsner, Elizabeth Waterman and Lee Bacon. Still others are Dorothy Shater, Gertrude Noetzel, Mary Aide, Alice Naffz, Louise Sammis, Marion Warner, Evelyn Voss, Susie Fisher, Janet Epstein, Elizabeth Markham, Adrienne Schreve, Mary Parkinson, Consuele Burwell, Mary Boyd, Reba Hayden, Catherine Meyer, Irene Spiker, Caroline Schweizer, Margaret Thomas, Dorothy Ware, Mira Bolles, Rowena Brown, Lillian Bressler, Dixie Davis, Reinette Douglass, Eleanor Graves, Dorothy Heinlein, Marion Lamp, Rosemary Lyons, Helen Rockwell, Esther Tilton and Helen Smallshaw.

In track this year several leading athletes will make their last appearance. Phyllis Hamilton, who holds the university record in two events and is practically sure of a first place in a third, will aid materially in helping the class of '20 to maintain its position as track champion. The freshmen with two phenomenal entrants, Olivia Fentress and Esther Mainland, are also sure of several first places, and the sophomores and juniors are by no means looking for defeat.

The baseball game, beginning at the close of the track meet will be between the freshmen and the junior-senior teams. The game promises to be a pitcher's battle between Eleanor Gaik for the upperclassmen and Elizabeth Kloss for the Frosh.

MUSIC

The Mothers were delightfully entertained on Friday night with a little concert, under the directorship of Mr. Peter Dykema, in the assembly chamber at the capitol. Miss Elsie Kremers gave as much pleasure with Schuman's Papillon as in her recital recently at music hall. Miss Catherine Cawley sang "Into Your Garden," and the "Rain Song."

Mr. Earl G. Beck, who has been taking Prof. W. von Geltch's place at the university this year, played Zigeuner Weise by Sarasate with gypsy-like abandon and joy. Mr. Beck is director of Kiltie's orchestra, which has toured the world, and will this summer travel through the states of Iowa, Illinois, Nebraska and Missouri, in company with the Coit-Alber Independent Chautauqua of Chicago.

Miss Marie McKatrick gave Handel's He Shall Feed His Flock, and pupils from the Wisconsin School of Music, the Elegy, from Massenet. Mr. Dykema has arranged other concerts for the Mothers' congress as pleasing as this.

A recital of unusual interest will be given at the Wisconsin School of Music, 122 W. Washington ave., on Friday evening, June 11th, at 8 o'clock. One of the features of the program, which will consist of numbers of selections for the violin, voice and piano, will be the violin ensemble, by Helene Abel, Cleo Bach, Eugene Reeder, Eva Kehl, Marcus Schmitz, Richard Knoche, Robert Griffin, Charlotte Kerl and John Bach.

WIFE OF MUSICIAN WHO LIVED IN LOG CABIN WITH PIANO COMING HERE

Mrs. Edward McDowell, Who Founded Colony for Creative Artists Carries on Husband's Brilliant Work

Mrs. Edward McDowell who is coming here June 7 to interpret her husband's compositions at the Christ Presbyterian church, has always planned to carry out her husband's ideas and ideals.

With that inspiration she established in 1908, the summer before Edward McDowell died, the "Peterborough Idea" and the "Peterborough colony."

"The Peterborough Idea," says a writer in the musical quarterly, "is to help the creative artist to establish his 'artistic trademark'; to give him an inspirational 'boost up' the discouragingly tall ladder that leads to creative success in this country; to help him during that crude and crucial period of development when so many careers are blighted through lack of understanding and sane sympathy."

The Peterborough colony, in New Hampshire, is where Mr. MacDowell built his log cabin, "in the deepness of the woods, where he could go and bury himself with his beloved piano and work at his compositions uninterruptedly throughout the day in a spot looking out upon the changeful beauty of Mount Monadnock, across a sea of pines."

Working and dreaming in this idealistic atmosphere, there came to him the idea of sharing the inspirational ozone of the place with other eager spirits longing for creative freedom, a colony where men and women of real talent might work for the joy of working and eschew all "shop talk."

"Directly or indirectly the colony's inspiration has had a bettering influence upon the traditions of American musical art. Vicissitudes and discouragements that would have broken the will and spirit of the strongest man, but have utterly failed to shake the serenity of a broad-visioned little woman who believed in the MacDowell colony and its mission so greatly that she has imbued men and women throughout the country with the same devotion. That little woman is Mrs. Edward MacDowell.

GRAND PRIZE IS WON BY EMMA ENDRES, AGED 9

Heads Winners in Music Memory Contest Just Closed

Emma Endres, aged 9, won the grand prize in the music memory contest which aroused city wide interest. She lives at 214 S. Charter st., and is a fourth grade student at St. James' school. The only mistake Emma Endres made was to write Ribinstein with an e. The judges decided to award her the prize because of her age.

Thirty-two prizes were awarded after the judges had spent several hours in eliminating the losers. In many cases the differences in papers were so unnoticeable that the judges had to award a number of ties.

The names of the winners follow:

Under 10 years—$10, Emma Endres; $4, Alice Mary Dykema, College Hills; $2, Cleo Bach.

Ten years—$5, Dorothy Wagner.

Eleven years old—$5, Roger Dykema, College Hills; $3, Gladys Cook; $2, Evelynne Sheehan.

Twelve years—$5, Victor Seastone; $3, Elizabeth Wiedholz; $2, Ruth Jane Dodley; $2, Betty Werning.

Thirteen years—$4, Bernie Schwoegler; $3, Iola B. Cook; $2, Mary Lynch and Christine Sach.

Fourteen years—$4 to Margaret Kessing; $4, Karl Dykema, College Hills; $2, Dorothy Diedevich.

Fifteen to 21 years old—$5, Florence Kohn; $3, Francis Landon; $2, Phyllis Bostwick, Edgewood Villa.

Adults—$5, Herdis Hanson; $5, Mrs. W. H. Peterson; $3, Myra Sampton; $3, Beulah McComb; $3, Grace McLay; $2, Sister Felicita, Edgewood; $2, Catherine Murray; $1, Frankie Orie; $1, Mary Tillotson; $1, Bertha Lund; $1, Sayda Seybould.

Winners of prizes will meet at the Y. W. C. A. at 5 p. m. Monday to obtain details regarding the distribution of the awards.

Exclusiveness---

means debarring, illiberal or excepting. When we speak of exclusive millinery we mean a hat which is in style, material and workmanship a distinctive creation in itself. A hat designed and constructed from an individual and artistic inspiration. An exclusive hat is not a stock number stamped out and constructed by a grinding machine but rather by a skilled designer.

Each of the many creations in Sports, Georgettes, Organdies and Navy Blue Taffetas I am now showing is an EXCLUSIVE creation.

STATE OF WISCONSIN
County of Dane

V. V. PARSONS, being duly sworn, on oath, deposes and says that each and every price marked on the Green Tickets in Parsons' store during manufacturer's cost sale is the exact price charged by the manufacturer.

V. V. PARSONS.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this Third day of June, 1920.
DOROTHY B. AUSTERMANN,
Notary Public, Dane County, Wisconsin.
(SEAL)
My commission expires Feb. 17, 1924.

$19.75
O.K.
A Kinney

I have had access to all bills, invoices, memoranda, etc., pertaining to the merchandise on sale during Parsons' Green Ticket Sale, and the amounts marked on the green tags are the actual manufacturer's cost of the articles.

A. KINNEY, Notary Public.

Dated June 3, 1920.

Look for the Green Tag

Never before has such a decided stand been taken by any house in Madison. Never before has a merchant in any line made affidavit as to the exact Manufacturers' Cost of his goods, and never before has a merchant backed up his statement with verifying proof by a Notary.

Bear in mind that the plain figures marked on each green tag is the price we pay the manufacturer. We have not added one penny for freight, cartage, or overhead. A. Kinney, the notary, had every invoice bill, memorandum, etc., for inspection before placing the factory cost and her O. K. on every tag.

Every article offered during this sale has been received during the past 60 days. Several groups arrived less than 10 days ago, assuring buyers of modish styles and newest patterns. Parsons is known to many as "The House of Quality and Price." This Manufacturers' Price Sale is for the purpose of giving our old customers unheard of bargains and widening our acquainance, thus definitely placing Parsons as the store carrying up-to-the-minute women's wear moderately priced.

We urge you to make an early call because there are many exclusive weave patterns and individual designs in cut and finish.

This Sale Includes

Beautiful poiret twills, tricotines and gabardines and men's wear serges, heavy embroidered and braided model dresses. Dresses of satin and charmeuse, dresses of taffeta and georgette. $8,000 worth of high grade dresses in this sale. More dresses in dollars and cents and numbers than was ever assembled under a Madison roof. Not a lot of sale dresses, that were manufactured to sell at a special sale. Not a lot of dresses that the style and individuality has been taken out of to figure them down to sell at a certain price, but dresses of the high Parsons standard quality and style made by the master mind designers of the eastern markets. Style and quality combined at a price that you could only expect to find at this store. At exactly the manufacturer's cost to you. Watch for the green tickets.

Children's and little tots' coats—sizes 3 to 6 and 6 to 14. Taffeta silks and silk poplins, goldtones, silvertones, serges, basket weaves and tweeds. All at the manufacturer's cost. Watch for the green tickets!

They Must Appeal to You

Select any suit in our house and pay exactly what the manufacturer sells it to us for. Not a penny added to the cost of parcel post, express or selling expense. Beautiful suits of poiret twill, tricotines and garbardines, and fine French serges, novelty velours and checks, plain velours and poplins, eton suits, fancy embroidered suits, tailored and semi-tailored suits. Beautiful linings and beautiful styles, youthful models at exactly the manufacturer's cost is our price to you. We are exclusive retailers for the HOUSE OF YOUTH suits for misses and small women.

Parsons' where you see the styles of State St. of Chicago at Madison State St. prices.

Quality and Price has made a path to our door.
Coats, capes and dolmans. Exclusive models from the house of Rapport, copies of import models, wrappy coats, evening capes of soft silk dovtine, accordion pleated and satin models, street coats of crystal cord, bolivias, goldtones and tinseltones, silvertones and wool velours, all silk lined and half lined coats. Sport coats of suedes, genuine leather and leatherettes, plaids and tweeds, fine cashmere and silk striped rain coats. All at the manufacturer's cost price.

Guaranteed Factory Cost Sale commences with the opening of our store Monday and Lasts Just One Week

Even if your immediate needs are supplied you can well afford to anticipate future wants, assured that styles and patterns offered during this sale will be in vogue for months to come. The saving in cost will amply repay your immediate purchase.

A competent sales woman will answer all telephone calls. Out of town customers coming to this sale will have immediate attention.

STUDENT FEAST AT DEERFIELD

DEERFIELD—The sophomores gave the freshmen a party at the high school gymnasium Saturday night. Games and dancing occupied the evening until 10 o'clock when Thompson brothers served supper.

The following program was presented at the village hall Memorial day: Music, double male quartet; invocation, the Rev. G. G. Krostu; exercises by first and second intermediate grades; manual of arms, Drill Squad; address, L. E. Gettle of Madison; benediction, the Rev. Krostu.

Immediately after these exercises a military funeral was conducted at the Synod church for Private Richard W. Zechzer by the Rev. D. J. Borge.

Private Richard W. Zechzer, Co. B. 332nd Machine Gun Battalion, died Oct. 11, 1918, at Southampton, England, of bronchial-pneumonia. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Caroline 26, 1918, and on Aug. 19, was transferred to Camp Upton, N. Y. He arrived overseas about Sept. 25. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Caroline Zechzer, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Zechzer, two brothers, Otto and Irvin, and one sister, Esther.

Claude Jose has been ill with measles.

Stanley Fall entertained several friends Saturday in honor of his ninth birthday.

The junior-senior banquet was given at the high school gymnasium Friday night. The gym was prettily decorated in the senior class colors, rose and dove gray. Earl S. Mullen acted as toastmaster.

CHAMPS GRAB LAST GAME IN TENTH FRAME

Old Man Fate Gives Michigan Four Runs in Extra Inning

Baseball isn't a bad game, but it is played pretty badly at times.

Wisconsin had a slick chance to leave a sweet taste in the mouths of the faithful fans, after a disastrous season. A splendid opportunity to win from Michigan, unbeaten champs of the conference, was lost at Camp Randall Friday afternoon, and the Badgers took the short end of an 8 to 4 affair in ten innings.

"Tony" Zulfer pitched good ball for nine innings, getting an even break with three Michigan stars, and then Allen Miller went in and finished the big game. Ruzicka, who opened for the Wolverines, passed the first two batters and walked himself out of the contest. Scheidler took up the burden and lasted until late in the ninth, when he passed one batter and hit another.

"Slicker" Parks, unbeaten captain of the chaps, finished the game and got credit for the win, but by the greatest of good luck. A one-run lead that he inherited was all that saved him, for he let in the tying run on a wild pitch and had to go into the tenth before the local talent handed him the game, four runs that were nothing less than a gift.

Robbed of Home Run

Old Man Fate was the only athlete present who kept Michigan from getting a licking in regulation innings. In the home fourth, with two batters on, George Willigrod crashed a line drive to left center good for a home run in any league, but the ball hit a board on the running track, bounding back into play. A two-base hit instead of a home run was the result.

Two innings later, with only one on, Knode of Michigan hit a similar drive to right, and the ball hopped all the way clear of a 5-foot embankment for a home run. That tied the score, 2-all, instead of being 3 to 2. And the next Michigan run came on just as freakish a break in the luck, when Kirchgessner hit an ordinary bingle to left which hopped clear over little Bud Emanuel and went for three sacks, the hitter scoring on a short fly.

Michigan misplay enabled Wisconsin to tie the count in the eighth. Parks scratched a single to short, reached on a sacrifice, and scored when Van Boven crashed into Perrin's Willigrod's fly.

Score Tie in Ninth

In the Michigan ninth Catcher Knode opened with another triple past Emanuel, and Langenhan sent him home on a well placed bunt with the squeeze play signal on.

With one down in the local ninth, Lyman worked Scheidler for a pass, and Gifford was sent in to run for him. Caesar got hit, and Coach Lundgren took Scheidler out, putting in Parks. Emanuel hit to short and Knode muffed the play, filling the bases with one gone. Davey struck out leaving the bags full with two gone. Parks then uncorged a wild pitch on which Gifford scored, and Falk struck out with the score a tie.

Boners in Tenth

Miller was then sent in to pitch, Zulfer going to right. Kirchgessner greeted Miller with a two-base drive. Perrin laid down a bunt, but was safe on Miller's fumble. Miller then walked Van Boven, a weak hitter.

In the Michigan half, Mraz slammed one right at Gifford, substituting for Lyman, and with plenty of time for a double play, Gifford took all the time in the world and threw the ball away, letting two runs score. Froemke's hit and a double steal scored two more. The score:

Crew enthusiasts will have their last chance to see the shells skimming along Mendota this morning at 10 o'clock when three class crews compete for rowing honors. The race will start a mile east of the university boat house, the finish being on a line with the pier by the hydraulics laboratory.

The keen rivalry between the eights, which have been training all spring, makes a good race certain. The freshman crew, which with two substitutes very nearly defeated the Aggies last Saturday, looms up especially strong.

The large amount of first rate material on the class crews makes the prospects for a championship crew in 1921 very good if rowing is reinstated as a varsity sport. Whether it will be reinstated is still doubtful, but it is hoped that the recent decision of the Intercollegiate Rowing association to reduce the course to two miles of still water will influence the decision of the faculty.

BADGER TEAM PLACES THREE

Michigan Favored in Western Classic; Six Events Run Off

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—Michigan, winner of the outdoor western conference track meet for the past two years, loomed large as a possible winner again Friday night on the eve of the classic following preliminaries in six of the 15 events Friday afternoon.

The large fields in the 440 yard dash and 880 yard run were cut respectively to six and nine starters for today. The big number of contestants in the shot put, discus throw, broad jump, and javelin throw were reduced to five in each event.

Out of the 36 survivors in these six events, Michigan and Illinois placed nine men each. If Captain Johnson of the Wolverines is in condition to make the hurdles as well as he did the broad jump Friday, Michigan should win. Johnson has been on the hospital list all season but cinched first place in the broad jump with a leap of 23 feet 7½ inches, a full foot further than his nearest competitor, Sundt, of Wisconsin.

One record was broken by Huffman of Michigan, who smashed the old mark in the javelin with a heave of 170 feet 9 inches. This distance is almost certain to be increased today. Spetz of Wisconsin placed third in the fastest heat in the 440 yard dash and his team mate, Klug, took a similar position in another heat failing to get into the finals by inches.

The summary:

440 yard dash—
- First heat won by Kasper, Notre Dame; Hendricson, California; second; time :50:3.
- Second heat won by Emery, Illinois; Bretnall, Cornell, second; time :49:4.
- Third heat won by Butler, Michigan; Donohue, Illinois, second; time :50:2.

880 yard run—
- First heat won by Meehan, Notre Dame; Nash, Wisconsin, second; Burkheidler, Michigan, third; time 1:58.
- Second heat won by Speer, Chicago; Spinkins, second; Douglas, Michigan, third; time 2:00.
- Third heat won by Sprott, California; D. Brown, Illinois, second; W. Brown, Illinois, third; time 2:01.

Javelin throw—
- Huffman, Michigan; Wilson, Illinois; Sundt, Wisconsin; Bredeims and Miller, Perdue, qualified for the finals in that order; best throw, Huffman, 170 feet 9 inches, new record.

Broad jump—
- Johnson, Michigan; Sundt, Wisconsin; Crushanks, Michigan; Keeling, Indiana; and Wesbrook, Michigan, qualified for the finals; best jump, Johnson, 23 feet 7 1-2 inches.

Shot put—
- Dale, Nebraska; Major, California; Baker, Michigan; Higgins, Chicago; and McClung, Missouri, qualified for finals; best put, Dale 43 feet 7 1-2 inches.

Discus throw—
- Higgins, Chicago; Weiss, Illinois; Baker, Michigan; Wilson, Illinois; and Slater, Iowa; qualified for finals; best throw, Higgins, 140 feet 8 inches.

PEACE PIPE GROUP HEADED BY EMERY

Clyde Emery has been appointed chairman of the junior committee to co-operate with the seniors in charge of the Pipe of Peace ceremony which will be given Monday, June 21. Other members of the committee are Elizabeth Chandler, Irwin Maier, Mary Parkinson, and Foster Strong.

Wheeler Johnston, Cleveland first sacker, and his young son sat eating in a hotel in Detroit.

Steve O'Neill entered.

"Oh, pop," chortled young Johnston, "there's O'Neill!"

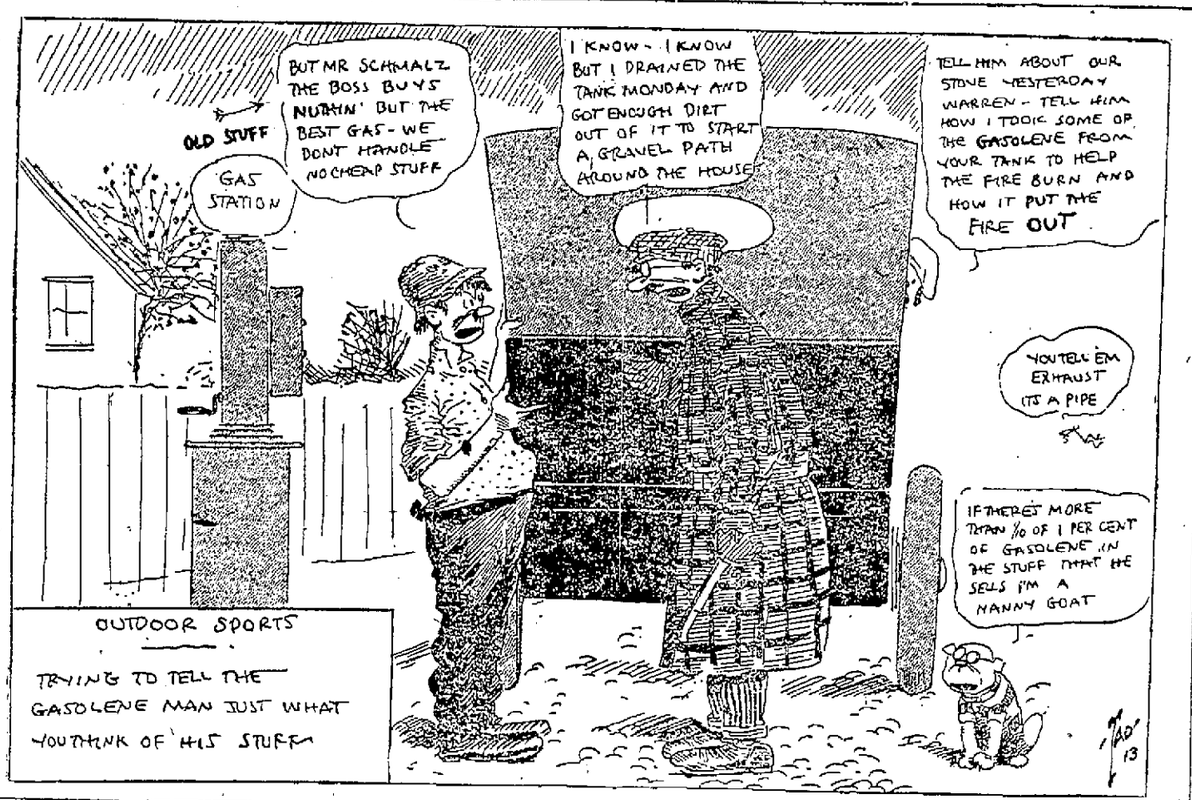

"Son, you should say Mr. O'Neill. It sounds better," said Doc.

The lad eyed his dad indignantly.

"Well, I don't hear 'em calling you Mr. Doc, so I guess I won't mister any of them!" he said.

HOME RUN INCREASE NOT DUE TO CHANGE IN BASEBALLS USED

PHILADELPHIA — The big increase in home runs this season is not due to any change in the ball, according to Thomas Shibe, a member of the firm that manufacture all the baseballs used in the major leagues and vice president of the Philadelphia American League club.

"The baseball used this year," said Mr. Shibe, "is the same as used last year and several seasons before that."

Mr. Shibe said his theory was that the abolition of all freak deliveries was the cause of the hard hitting.

15 TEAMS ENTERED IN TRACK CONTEST

With 15 teams entered in the inter-fraternity track and field meet which will be held at Camp Randall at 2 o'clock this afternoon, an unusually interesting contest is anticipated.

The fraternities which will be represented are: Theta Chi, Phi Gam, Kappa Sig, Theta Delt, Sigma Nu, Beta, Acacia, Theta Xi, Chi Psi, Pi Kappa Alpha, Alpha Gamma Rho, Phi Kappa Psi, Sigma Chi, Phi Delta Theta, Delta Upsilon. Eight of these fraternities will be represented in the relay race.

The order of events will be the same as in conference track meets with the exception of the hammer throw, the 2 mile run, the high hurdles, and the javelin throw, which have been omitted. The low hurdles will be 120 yards.

Men who have competed on the varsity team in any of the out door meets will be incligible for this meet.

CUE ARTISTS IN LOCAL BILLIARD EXHIBITION

George E. Spears, world's champion straight rail billiard player, holder of a record high run of 5,041, yesterday defeated two crack cue artists at the Washington billiard parlors, by scores of 250 to 85 and 250 to 60. Last night he outclassed Ray Fessenden, state champion, by the former score. Yesterday afternoon he played a traveling man from Sioux City, Ia.

NELSON SPEAKS AT SUN PRAIRIE

SUN PRAIRIE—Ex-Congressman John M. Nelson of Madison gave an address in the city hall Thursday night on "Our Invisible Government."

Memorial day exercises were conducted at Angell park. This year only seven of the veterans of '61 were present. They were N. S. Davidson, R. V. Swain, Olliver Van Sant, John Sprengel, Fred Shadel, Thomas Quilty and James Gilbert. F. K. Shuttleworth of Madison gave the principal address. The program included: Invocation by the Rev. D. K. Freymeyer; ladies' quartet, "Sleep, On Sleep," Misses Adella Gaston and Flora Swain and Mesdames H. G. Brown and Neva Birkenbine; Lincoln's Gettysburg address, Ben Seltzner; "The Jolly Forest Overture," parochial school orchestra; recitation, "A Tribute to the Soldier Dead," Oscar Kluberanz.

Funeral services for D. E. Coffey, who died after a long illness at a Madison hospital Thursday, May 27, were conducted Saturday morning at the Sacred Heart's chapel by the Rev. J. J. Salentin. Burial was in the Sacred Heard't cemetery, north of the village.

Mr. Coffey was born near Deerfield, May 29, 1871. He leaves a widow, two little daughters, Gertrude and Loretta, besides two brothers and two sisters, William Coffey of South Dakota and John, and Susan Coffey and Mrs. John Coughlin of Cottage Grove.

Funeral services for Edward Spreecher of Milwaukee, brother of Frank Spreecher, were conducted here Saturday afternoon at Crosse and Scheidler undertaking parlors. Burial was in the village cemetery in the family lot.

Alexander Loses to Cards; Tigers Scratch White Sox; Yankees Near Lead in A.L.

Indians Lose to Browns—Mamamux Hands Meadows First Defeat; Giants Continue to Win

ALEXANDER THE GREAT'S winning streak was all smashed to pieces yesterday when the St. Louis Cards pulled a Dog-in-the-Manger act and defeated the erstwhile league leading Bruins by a count of 5 to 1.

Alexander had reached the total of eleven straight games won, the record for the year, and he took the mound confident of adding another victory to the string. The Cards fell upon him for fourteen hits and five runs, while Doak held the Cubs in check. "I'm glad its over," said Alex last night. "The strain of a long winning streak is a bad thing, and I'll go out next week and start a new one."

All in all, yesterday was a bad day for Chicago teams. The White Sox arrived home and received a big welcome. Faber went to the slab against the Detroit Tigers, and the Tigers were inconsiderate enough to mar the homecoming by knocking him off again. The final score was 6 to 3.

One little event in the world of records and statistics slipped by unnoticed by most of the fans. Ray Schalk, peppery White Sox catcher, was catching his 1,000th game in the big leagues. Schalk celebrated the event by busting a double which scored two runs.

Meusel of the New York Yankees was the star hitter yesterday. He hit a homer, a double, and two singles in five chances, which was the chief reason why the Yanks defeated the Mackmen, 12 to 5. The Yanks won the game with six runs off Naylor in the first inning. Babe Ruth and Ping Bodie contributed doubles to the Yank total of hits which reached fifteen before the game ended.

* * *

The Indians were defeated again yesterday by the St. Louis Browns, and the margin between them and the racing New York Yankees was narrowed to a single game. The game was a slugfest, but the Browns outslugged the Speakerites, and won, 7 to 6.

At Mamaux, eccentric but brilliant Dodger hurler, won another game yesterday. The Phillies were the victims, and Meadows, the famous spectacled pitcher, lost his first game of the year. The Robins did not hit Meadows hard, but scored five runs in the last four innings, winning, 5 to 1.

* * *

The Giants fought their way to within half a game of sixth plays yesterday by taking their third straight game from the Boston Braves. Boston scored four runs off Douglas in the second inning, knocking him out of the box, but the Giants came back and assaulted Filligim for elevtn markers in the next three rounds. The final score was 11 to 8.

U.S. GOLFERS TRY FOR ENGLISH OPEN TITLE

CROYDEN, England—The American professional golfers, Walter Hagen and Jim Barnes, who will compete in the English open championship, had their first regular practice on the Addington course here yesterday. Two four-ball matches were played in which Barnes paired with Ross, the English professional, while Hagen had McRoome of the Oxford-Cambridge Golfing society as a partner. Barnes and Ross won the forenoon round 3 up and 2 to play, while the afternoon match ended all square, Hagen had a 75 for the afternoon round.

BOXING LEGALIZED IN MASSACHUSETTS

BOSTON—Gov. Coolidge signed a bill legalizing ten-round boxing bouts in this state.

The bill specified that decisions are to be given by two judges, and if they are unable to agree, by a referee. Boxers, managers, handlers, referees, judges or others associated must be licensed by the state.

AMERICAN YACHT UP FOR REPAIRS; POSTPONE RACES

NEWPORT, R. I.—The ill fortune with mainmasts which has attended the sloop Resolute, American's cup defense candidate, has clung to her in the elimination trials with the Vanitie, as it developed on Friday that it would be necessary to step another steel mast in place of the one used on Thursday. As a result the elimination trials off this port have been postponed until the Resolute can be made ready again.

W. Butler Duncan, chairman of the American cup defense of the New York Yacht club, said Friday night that he expected the repairs would be completed by Sunday, and that the Resolute would be prepared to meet the Vanitie again on Monday or Tuesday next.

"TRIAL HORSE" ARRIVES.

CITY ISLAND, N. Y.—News that the 23 meter Shamrock "trial horse" for Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV challenge for the America's cup had crossed the Atlantic safely, was received with enthusiasm by the "war camp" that the Irish yachtsman has established here.

SHAMROCK IN DRY DOCK.

NEW YORK—Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV, was given a rest on Friday from its daily trial spins and was being equipped with new cross trees. Because Charles E. Nicholson, its designer, decided not to take any chances with the slender rigging with which it is now fitted.

ROUNDY'S RAZZBERRIES

Dempsey will not make as much out of the circus game as Jess Willard did, as Willard was agreat clown fighter.

The Madison fight clubs claim they are trying to get Carpentier to show here on his way to Superior. I thought we were going to have boxing shows here instead of a style show.

It used to be munitions factories. Now it is baseball factories to make money from the home runs they are making this year.

The city is going to get a war cannon. Chances are they can put it to use by waking George Esser up every morning, as he is always running to work.

Jimmy Brahany, manager of the Telephone Co, wanted to know if I believed in ghosts. I told him no, but I thought some of those R. R. engineers at the capitol did if they saw a car every 12 minutes on the West Main street line.

The local Elks are going to stage their boxing shows for the benefit of the members only. After they monkey around boxers awhile they will find out they are the ones who get the benefit out of it.

It used to be What is the score? Now it is, How many home runs did Ruth get?

It goes to show you Michigan has not got much of a ball team, as it took them ten innings to beat Wisconsin yesterday.

Coach Kent, the Wisconsin coach, was the happiest man on earth after the game yesterday even if he did lose. What made him happy was Wisconsin will not play any more games this year.

Where is that switchman's lantern they used to have on top of the capitol dome last summer to light up the dome?

As soon as the university girls start to go bathing in Lake Mendota, Mautz, the billiard hall man, claims he will close up as he can not get anybody to stick around.

Ping Bodie gets a home run for the Yankees. Gee, you would not know he was playing till he got that home run!

Until Babe Ruth buys a circus he will be a champion batter.

Heinie Groh's new hat is shaped like a beer bottle. That ought to be a hit in Cincinnati.

Johnny Evers signs to coach the Giants. Can't keep Johnny out of it, apparently. Wonder if he has picked a winner this time.

GIANTS TOSSED GAME FOR SAKE OF NEHF'S ARM

Keene Tells How McGraw Gave Contest Away to Let Art Nehf Get Arm in Condition

By JACK KEENE

One game that the Giants lost this year was sacrificed that Art Nehf might win more games for the Giants later on this spring. Sounds queer, but it's a fact. Here's the dope:

Prior to the game—which was played at Philadelphia—Nehf had started two games. On April 18 he faced the Braves on the Polo grounds and went six innings, in the course of which he yielded nine hits and six runs; on April 26 he took a whirl at the Robins at Ebbets Field, and though he entered the box in possession of a two-run lead he failed to survive the first inning. He walked one man and was found for four hits, the combination netting three runs before he could be derricked and Jesse Winters rushed to the rescue.

There was only one conclusion to be drawn from the foregoing—that Nehf's pitching arm, pliant and forceful under ideal weather conditions in the south, had tightened up in the cold weather that has beset the club practically every day since it emerged from the south some weeks ago. The arm didn't pain him, but the muscles had temporarily lost some of their spring and he was utterly unable to put any stuff on the ball. Obviously, unless the kinks could be worked out of the arm Nehf would be useless until warm weather sets in. The only manner in which such a contingency might be forestalled lay in sending the pitcher over the route regardless of the immediate consequences such such a stunt.

Fifteen minutes before game time on the day under discussion John McGraw informed Nehf that he was to work.

"Get in there and see what you can do, Arthur," he said. "You're going to pitch nine innings whether they make one run or twenty. That's the only way you'll be able to get your arm in shape."

Nehf agreed heartily with the manager and set forth to see what he could do. He stuck to the job manfully and he never stopped trying, even when line drives were whistling past his head and the Giant outfielders were reeling about, weary of limbs and short of breath. After the game he was gloomy because he had been the direct cause of another defeat for the club, but was inclined to believe that the workout had done him a lot of real good. McGraw was of the same opinion.

"It was the only thing to do," said the Giant leader. "I knew before the first inning was over what was coming to us, but little could have been accomplished by taking Nehf out. Perhaps we would have won the game, but Nehf would have been no further advanced than he was before the contest. I felt that I must sacrifice a ball game for the ultimate good of Nehf and the club. It was tough to lose a game in which the boys fielded so well and made six runs in the bargain, but it couldn't be helped."

MARKETS

STOCKS TAKE HIGHER LEVEL

Popular Issues Influence Higher Movement Today

NEW YORK—Half a score of popular issues in the steel, equipment, oil, motor and shipping divisions influenced the higher movement of prices in the stock market today. Yesterday's late rally was generally extended on the usual week-end settlement of contracts. Crucible, Replogle and Railway steel springs, Baldwin Locomotive, Mexican Petroleum, mercantile marine preferred, and American ship and commerce were the strongest issues, their extreme gains ranging from 1 to almost 5 points. Reading was the only feature among rails, gaining one point. The closing was strong. Sales approximated 125,000 shares. Liberty bonds continued to yield to pressure and foreign exchange was irregular, the German rate, however, showing further strength.

CORN BOOSTS DURING WEEK

Sweeping Upturns in Market Due to Slow Crop Movement

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO—Sweeping upturns in the price of corn have taken place this week chiefly as a result of failure of efforts to hurry the much belated crop movement. Compared with a week ago corn quotations this morning were 8¾@11½ cents higher and oats up 3½ cents to 7¼. In provisions the outcome varied from 30 cents decline to 2½ cents gain.

As soon as sufficient time had elapsed for new effects to be produced by stringent federal orders to the railroads that more cars be furnished the continued meagerness of arrivals of corn led quickly to a steep advance. So impetuous was the rush to buy that in a single session 7¾ cents a bushel was added to values. Subsequent warnings to the railroads that penal sections of the interstate commerce act would be invoked had only a temporary bearish influence. On the other hand impediments to wheat export business in Argentina gave a fresh advantage to the bulls in corn, and so too did reports that the 1920 domestic grain season was 10 to 20 days late.

Oats climbed to the topmost prices yet this season. Simultaneous receipts dwindled nearly to zero.

Provisions were weakened by the fact that the stock of lard here was the second heaviest on record.

A sharp downturn in wheat values counted later as an additional depressing factor in the corn market. The close was nervous, ½s to 1½c lower with July 1.73 to 1.73¾ and Sept. 1.60@1.60¼.

BEN-HUR SCHOLARSHIPS

The Tribe of Ben-Hur adjourned its supreme meeting at Crawfordsville, Ind., after adopting a new benevolent feature, the D. W. Gerard Memorial-Endowment association. The purpose is to preserve the home of General Lew Wallace and also establish scholarships in educational institutions for the benefit of ambitious members of the order.

Gerard and Wallace were neighbors for years. The book of Ben-Hur was the inspiration of Gerard in the organization of the Tribe of Ben-Hur over a quarter of a century ago.

The first memorial scholarship will be placed at Wabash college Crawfordsville, where General Wallace was once a student and will be awarded for the year beginning in the fall of 1921. Competition will be open to all male members of the Tribe of Ben-Hur. The next scholarship will be awarded to the best qualified female member and will be placed at a woman's college of high standing. The number of scholarships will be increased each year. They will not be confined to universities, but will include all kinds of technical, professional, trade, art and music schools. This idea of assisting ambitious members to secure a higher education is new in the fraternal world and will be watched with interest by both fraternalists and educators. The enterprise will be controlled by a board of thirteen trustees.

Before adjourning the Tribe of Ben-Hur re-elected Dr. R. H. Gerard as supreme chief, John C. Snyder supreme scribe, and Dr. J. F. Davidson supreme medical examiner.

C. K. Herried is deputy supreme chief of Wisconsin

CORN SELLING IS STIMULATED

Bearish Sentiment Develops in Market Saturday

CHICAGO—Bearish sentiment developed in the corn market today as a result of expected accumulation of receipts during Sunday Selling was also stimulated somewhat by gossip that Boston was offering corn at 10c under current cash quotations. Pressure, however, from bears was not aggressive. Opening prices which ranged from ½c to 1½c lower with July 1.73¾ to 1.73¾ and September 1.59¾ to 1.60, were followed by a little rally, and then by declines further than before.

Oats were easier with corn. After opening unchanged to ⅝c lower, including July at 94¼ to 94⅛, the market hardened temporarily and then sagged again.

Provisions as well as cereals had a downward trend. Demand was lacking.

WAUNAKEE

WAUNAKEE—The three-weeks-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schroeder of Springfield was buried from St. Martins church Monday morning. Mrs. Math. Schroeder, and Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Uebersetzig attended the funeral.

Miss Kathryn La Crosse of Madison recently spent a few days with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shumaker of Madison were recent guests at the home of Mr. Shumaker's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wheeler of Madison have moved into the residence recently purchased from A Simpson.

The Rev. C. J. Hausner is ill with rheumatism.

Chris Slinde, who has been employed as carpenter with Henry Adler, has returned to his home in De Forest.

Linette Meyer, Clara Faust, Hildegarde Koellen, Joseph Meyer and Leonard Faust of Madison were guests at the home of P. J. Uebersetzig Monday.

Pass Shoe Law — The Spanish government has created a commission to provide national shoes to be sold at prices lower than in effect now.

640 Acres, Improved Farm For Sale

IN THE GARDEN SPOT OF EAST TEXAS, SEVEN MILES FROM CARTHAGE, THE COUNTY SEAT OF PANOLA COUNTY

This is one of the best diversified sections of the South. Every crop adapted to the greater portion of the U. S. is grown without irrigation. The soil is a sandy loam and very easy to work, good climate, excellent water and a healthy and prosperous location.

This tract of land is fenced and cross fenced, much of it with hog proof fence. 275 acres under cultivation, the balance being heavily timbered with hard wood and scattering pine. Five living springs, are located in five different fields, great for stock raising and have never gone dry, neither has Panola County, Texas ever experienced a complete failure of crops. Nearly every acre of this 640 acre farm can be tilled, being rolling and well) drained.

Included on this farm are three good farm houses, barns, cribs, etc. The stock also will be sold, including 85 hogs, forty head of cattle, five head work stock and implements. The owner is a doctor and does not have the time to attend to the farm. This is the reason for selling. For information call on us.

DIVIDING PROGRESSIVE FORCES

TO KEEP the working farmers and trade unionists DIVIDED, that is the great objective of the profiteers and the great accumulators of wealth who have been enjoying special privileges and special immunities, through their control of government. That was the reason for the campaign against bolshevism carried on in Dane county in the COUNTRY SCHOOL HOUSES.

The game is to picture the horrors of bolshevism with blood-curdling oratory and literature and then represent American labor as on the downward path, bound for ruin, revolution, and bolshevic rule.

The working farmers and organized labor have united in North Dakota and they are uniting in Wisconsin and Minnesota.

In North Dakota the Nonpartisan League enacted one of the most liberal workmen's compensation laws in the United States, as well as laws establishing a minimum wage for women and an eight hour day for women employed in factories, and various other measures safeguarding dangerous employment, and limiting the use of injunctions. With such a record why should not labor in Minnesota and Wisconsin join with the working farmers?

In Minnesota labor is organized under the name of the Working People's Nonpartisan League. Joining with the Farmers' Nonpartisan League it will have full state and congressional tickets in the field.

The virility of the Working People's League was demonstrated in the recent municipal election when Mahoney, its candidate for mayor received 47 per cent of the votes cast, and three candidates were elected to the city council of St. Paul.

So it is not surprising to find big business organized in Minnesota as a Sound Government Association, with a newspaper organ which is constantly trying to make the Nonpartisan League of North Dakota look like Russian bolshevism.

E. H. Nicholas, county attorney delivered an amusing tirade against the Nonpartisan movements in Minneapolis a few days ago. It is a rather difficult job in these days, when people generally are so disgusted with the old parties, to make a really effective argument with a popular audience, against the eight hour day for factory workers, against state ownership of elevators and mills, against state rural credit banks and against ultimate state development of natural resources.

So not wanting to attack these REAL things for which the Nonpartisan League stands, Mr. Nicholas made a man of straw, which he called a Nonpartisan leaguer and then he tore it to pieces.

He spoke under the auspices of the Republican county committee and here are some of the things which he said, as reported in the Minneapolis Tribune:

"The league has an organization extending over 20 states. Minnesota this year is the battleground of bolshevism and everything that Americans hold dear to them is in the balance. If once the Nonpartisan League gets control of Minnesota and its vast resources it will be a quarter of a century before it can be stamped out. The real purpose of the league is the abolition of all private property."

Coupled with this was the insinuation that the Nonpartisan League farmers are out to establish free love wherever they are in power. And the only basis for this charge was the assertion that Ellen Key's Love and Ethics is in the public library at Bismark, N. D.

But Mr. Nicholas came out frankly against FREE SPEECH. He said: "There is no country in the world so supceptible to bolshevism as this, where we have let the doctrine of free speech go so far."

And the element which Mr. Nicholas represents has proved true to the spirit of this remark by the record it has made of over 200 authenticated cases of violations of the constitution, deportations, rotten-egging, beating and stoning of farmers, tarring and feathering, lynching, destruction of property by mobs, yellow painting of houses, turning fire-hoses on men and women at peaceful meetings, and other persecutions, which the Minnesota Nonpartisan Leader says, have hardly been noticed by the daily press, not a single person has been punished for these acts, and in fact peace officers have connived at them.

These are the things, we can tell Mr. Nicholas, which make a country susceptible to bolshevism, and not constitutional free speech. And a cause which has to resort to SUCH METHODS, is the one that is FOREIGN to American soil.

Mr. Nicholas, might take a tip from General Wood, who found he was only making himself ridiculous with his "SHIP OR SHOOT" doctrine. He has dropped it, and the New York Tribune reported him the other days as saying:

"The Red peril has been exaggerated. Of that there is little or nothing worth speaking of, and what there is, is due to our own indifference."

If he had said, "and what there is, is due to the spirit of Russian autocracy, which has its advocates among our profiteers," he would have been just right.

THE DOUBLE STANDARD

WHY a double standard of ethics?

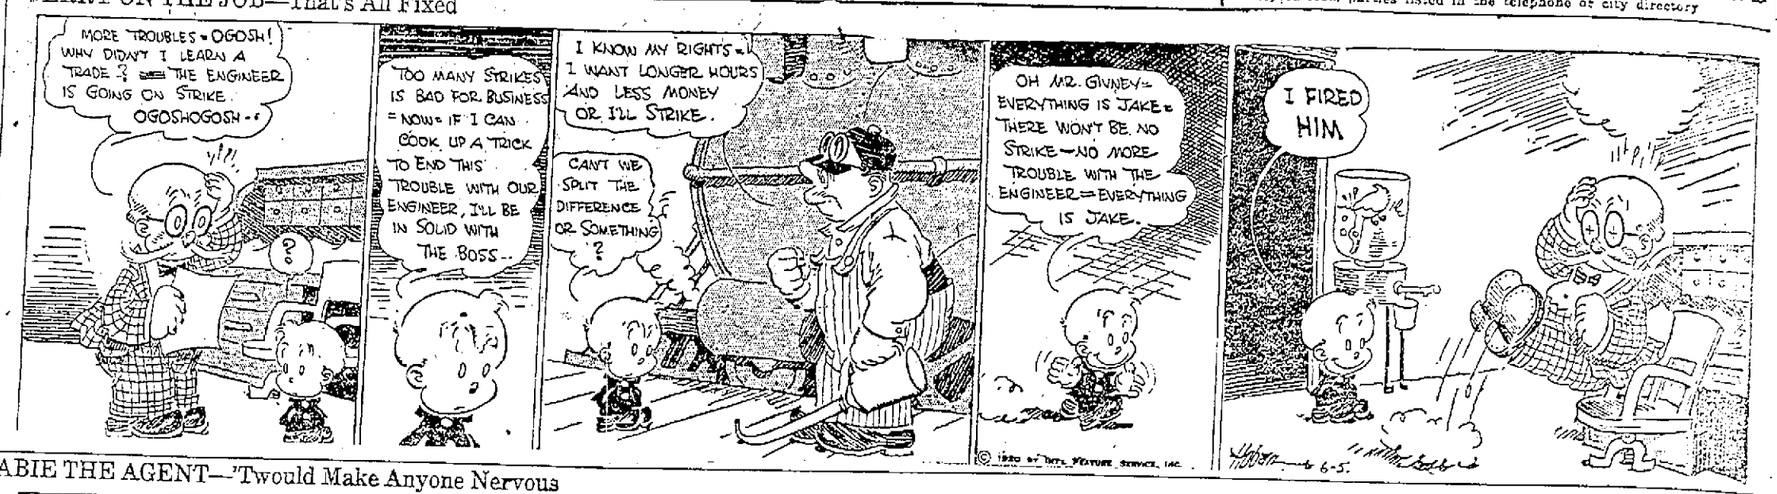

Why unseat and spurn the little fellows, who sell their votes in the convention, and ignore the big fellows who buy the votes?

Why is not the bribe giver as bad, or worse than the bribe taker?

Mr. Lowden is showing some fine scorn of crooked business in Missouri, but only towards those about whom there has been "ALL THIS UNPLEASANT PUBLICITY." Why do we hear no words of scorn aimed at those who paid the money? What about Lowden's man Emmerson?

Is it really the crime of being found out that is being denounced?

REASONS FOR COUNTY CONTROL OF ROADS

To the Editor of The Capital Times:

In the first place we could cut off all unnecessary help from the state down to the county and that will relieve the taxpayers of a great burden of taxes, and let that little army that is employed in making maps on blue prints go to work and produce something and help to cut down the high cost of living.

In the second place I want to try and prove that we can have better roads and give every taxpayer a fair chance. In the first place we would have $1.00 to use on the road instead of 50 cents. Though if we had county control the road money could be distributed equally among all the taxpayers and every farmer could have the benefit of what he paid in taxes between his home and his cheese factory. They, in that case would not have to travel from one to twelve miles to see the concrete road that the state would build for the tourist.

In the third place: We want to show the taxpayer that in some cases it cost more for the blue print on a certain piece of road than it took to build the road. There is a certain piece of road in the town of Brigham about two hundred rods long, of which the state made two surveys through that piece of land so you can judge how much it cost. This highway ran through a field that was all meadow, and there was not a stone or other obstruction in the way. The owner offered to take his team and plow and lay out the road nearly a year before the road was surveyed and right where the road is located now, after the blue print was made. Secondly we could have had the road ready for travel nearly a year sooner, if it had not been held back by the blue print. This road was built under town supervision by the road boss of said district, and said road will compare favorably with any dirt road anywhere. The only difference is the town worked it to one side of the right of way leaving a strip of the road untouched, producing a good crop of hay every year. If it had been laid according to the blue print description this strip would have been worthless. This road is and has been ever since it was finished, in good shape for both team and auto travel at the cost of $75.00. To prove my point, in district No. 7, we have eleven miles of roads, have a farmer for road overseer and he graded and dragged the said eleven miles of road, and it is second to no road in the town, costing the town the nominal sum of but $400. I make this statement that this same road boss will take the same material and make just as good without the blue print as any man with blue print description. It only takes a man with a little horse sense, to take the top of the hill and place it in the low place. I feel satisfied that if this question was submitted to the people we would have 75 per cent in favor of county supervision of roads. The main object of this article is to get the present state law in relation to roads changed from a state supervision to that of county supervision. I am here and would be glad to make it right if I can. I would like to hear from any one on this question; If I am wrong I would like to have it proved through the press and if there is any one of the same opinion that I am , let me hear from you. Now I have no ill will to my fellow men but I do know that there is too much unnecessary help on the state and federal jobs, and the farms are only half manned, and the sooner our representatives find it out and go to work to remedy the evil the better for the farmer and he is the fellow that has got to pay the bill. Fellow citizens don't you think that it is time to call a halt on extravagance? It takes 6 billions to run the federal government annually or in other words six dollars per capita. A sum that is greater than most people are aware of.

IN NO MAN'S LAND.

To the Editor of The Capital Times:

We note in The Capital Times of April 15th the announcement of F. K. Shuttleworth as a candidate for congress. He states he is not a progressive, half breed or a stalwart. This places him in no man's land with the progressive and stalwart camps being in their trenches. Between the two camps he will receive a crushing defeat. The voters know that John M. Nelson is a progressive and the right man for congress. The voters also know Monahan is a reactionary and is dearly loved by the trusts. Mr. Shuttleworth being a candidate in no man's land can not expect to win.

Everyone loves a fighter or at least respects one, but a man who runs independent, practically without a platform and fighting both the progressives and reactionaries will receive light support from the voters. We want candidates with pep, that have courage to state which side they are on,—also if they are for or against the people. The reactionary candidates were defeated last election because they ran on an uninstructed ticket. History will repeat itself next primaries. The fight will be between Nelson and Monahan. These men have announced themselves where they stand. Nelson for the progressives and Monahan for the reactionaries, according to last election. Nelson will win and Monahan will be second, while Shuttleworth will receive enough votes so that he will be mentioned as a candidate who also ran.

To the Editor of The Capital Times:

Enclosed find $4 to renew my subscription for another year. And I want to say that I thank the editor and his staff for the broad and intelligent way you are conducting The Capital Times. In giving both sides of all subjects, religiously or political, which is bound in time to bring the people to a better understanding of the great subjects, to make the world more spiritual and bring about a closer brotherhood than ever has been dreamed of.

So let every farmer and laborer, and even the profiteers, study how to bring about this great problem to make this world a better place to live in.

It is the utmost duty to make this world a fit place to live in, which is not at the present time, which can be comprehended by all parties that are willing to reason.

HE SAW BERGDOLL

To the Editor of The Capital Times:

Have you a description of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll? I gave a stranger a ride in a car on Thursday, May 27, saying he was headed for Madison. About 5ft. 7 in. tall, weight about 150 lbs. Blue striped pants, black hat. He was not light or dark complexioned. He was carrying a grey overcoat. Should think he was between 25 and 30 years old. He crossed the river at Merrimack on the railroad bridge about 1:30. If you have a picture would like to see it.

On The Side

DISILLUSIONMENT

The veil of the future baffled me
When I would fain see through,
Though it was only a web of fairy wings
Woven of light and dew.

A soft breeze rimpled the curtain—
A shimmering mist of blue;
Oh, why was there torn a tiny rift?
Oh, why did I see through?

—Doris Kenyon.

The censor at Mt. Vernon, N. Y., has taken some papers and covered the—th—er—cr—er—shall we say limbs?—of the show girls on theatrical posters and we are again led to wonder how censors and reformers think these girls can walk around if they have no—ah—er—er, as it were.

Are they supposed to be different from the rest of us? Crime should be abolished, not concealed. But, are they, or are it a crime?

'Tis a condition and ont a theory that confronts us.

Besides, it is difficult for us to write an unprejudiced article on the subject. So, we have only the following to say:

And we guess we won't say it.

* * *

The Adriatic question has been settled, and we won't have to worry about that again—until possibly next week.

* * *

Governor Smith doesn't care to be vice president. Somebody has got to do it. Isn't there a patriot left in the land?

Perhaps the democrats will ask Mr. Bryan to check his dry plank at the door when entering the convention.

A SIMILARITY

War is what old Sherman said,
When he gave it that name,
And getting out of war, we've found
Is practically the same.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

There seems little reason to anticipate any far reaching disaster from the causes that have created the panics and depressions of past years. Yet other causes are working toward a distinct recession in business. The general sentiment of the community looks for a gradual yielding of prices. This will make merchants slow in ordering goods. They will wish to keep their stocks cleaned up as well as possible.

The retail trade is passing through an experience that tends to make any business man cautious, and a good many of them rather sore. Many of the retailers were urged to stock up heavily, and were induced to buy freely on what seemed a steadily advancing market. Now they wont' feel very happy to have their loans called, and to be forced to sell on a dropping market. The experience is leading many business men to predict that orders will come in rather slow for the next few months.

Then of course there is the revival of Europe. This is proceeding much faster than the business community realizes. The cable brings the big news of strikes and disturbances. Little is said about the hard work which is getting industrial production back in shape. The workers are employed shorter hours, but a lot of women are working, and making up the shortage in production.

Europe is making a tremendous bid for export trade. It will get a good deal of the business that the United States had during the war from South America and other countries outside Europe, unless the United States finds some way to reduce production costs. Imports are coming into this country faster every month. All these conditions must tend to some let-up in activity. It is hard to imagine that the coming season should manifest the clamorous demand for goods that characterized the past 12 months.—Sheboygan Press.

RESTORE AMERICAN RIGHTS.

There is going to be a determined fight on the part of republicans in congress to restore to our coastwise ships the right to use the Panama canal free of tolls. It will be remembered that the privilege was taken from them after President Wilson personally appealed to congress for the repeal of the free tolls provision of the Panama canal act. The president's appeal was shrouded in mystery. "I shall not know," he said, "how to deal with other matters of even greater delicacy and nearer consequence if you do not grant it to me in ungrudging measure." He referred to support of his policy in repeal. What Mr. Wilson had in mind when he made that dark illusion has never been revealed, nor can the public understand wherein the country has benefited by compelling our ships to pay tolls through our own canal. Senator Knox, who was secretary of state when the Panama canal act containing the original exemption was passed, is heartily in favor of restoring that legislation. Bills with that end in view already have been introduced by Senators Poindexter and Borah, and before the end of the session action upon them may be expected.—Racine Journal News.

THE ARMENIAN MANDATE.

The possible attitude of the christian churches concerning the proposed mandate for Armenia is said to be worrying some of the politicians of this country. As usual the politicians care little for the principle involved—their chief concern is whether a given policy is apt to make or lose votes for the party which they represent—Oshkosh Northwestern.

NATIONAL CONVENTIONS

The national political conventions are quite different affairs from what they used to be 25 years ago. In those times 95 per cent of the people voted pretty nearly a straight party ticket. The great majority voted the way their fathers and grandfathers did.

Today the majority of people are to be "shown." Most people have a party preference. But they will not back up their party when it makes a bad nomination.

As a result the party leaders of today are far more cautious than they were formerly. It is not a question of getting safe candidates who will distribute the offices fairly and harmonize all the politicians. The candidate today must make good with the people. The politicians realize this fact quite clearly and are keeping their ears very much closer to the ground than they used to.—Sheboygan Press.

The annual tourist rush to Wisconsin summer resorts has started and is expected to set a new record this season. And the more the people of Wisconsin encourage this movement, the better it will be for them and for the state as a whole. —Oshkosh Northwestern.
